Mr. BERTINE explained that the entire personnel of the Electronic Computer Division had been suspended on 3/19/57, and that the Division will be taken over as an independent company to be run by ALBERT A. AUERBACH, EUGENE LEONARD, ROBERT F. SHAW and NORMAN J. GRIESER, who will retain approximately forty employees from the original personnel of the Electronic Computer Division.

NY 65-64335

Mr. BERTINE advised that the Underwood Corporation will give subcontracts to the newly formed company run by AUERBACH in order to fulfill existing orders and to assist in training individuals who will form the nucleus of a new Electronic Computer Division for the Underwood Corporation.

Mr. BERTINE advised that the subcontracts will concern only unclassified information and that any attempt to obtain security clearance for individuals retained by AUERBACH would be initiated by AUERBACH's new company.

Mr. BERTINE, as of 3/21/57, did not know the identities of individuals retained by AUERBACH's new company.

On 3/27/57, Mr. BERTINE telephonically advised SA CLOUGH that AUERBACH's new company will be called "Digitronics Corporation" incorporated under Delaware State Laws.
